- 3.) Incomplete applications will not be considered.
- 4.) The contestant's birth date must be verified at the competition site with the contestant's driver's license, birth certificate, or passport. Any contestant who does not show proof of age, or is older than 26 years of age as of March 7, 2018, will be disqualified.
- 5.) There are three rounds of the NASA Solo Competition: a recorded Preliminary Round, a live Semi-Final Round and a live Final Round. The deadline for the recorded Preliminary Round is November 15, 2017. The live Semi-Final Round and live Final Round will be held in conjunction with the 2018 NASA Biennial Conference in Cincinnati, OH on March 7-8, 2018.

III. Preliminary Round

The preliminary round will consist of a recorded audition. The audio recording must be UNEDITED, and must be submitted on Acceptd with the initial application materials by the deadline, November 15, 2017. The recorded music must be with live piano accompaniment. Digital versions of piano accompaniments such as smart music or music-minus-one play-a-long formats are not acceptable. Technical guidelines for the audio recording will be posted when the Acceptd application webpage becomes available. The recording should contain a complete performance, with live piano accompaniment of:

1. Concerto (Mvt.1 ONLY) by Henri Tomasi
2. Up to 10 minutes of additional music of the performer's choice. If the work(s) is written with piano accompaniment, it must be performed with live piano accompaniment. Digital versions of piano accompaniments such as smart music or music-minus-one play-a-long formats are not acceptable.

IV. Semi-Finals

Up to 25 saxophonists will be invited to perform in the Semi-Finals. The Semi-Finals will be held on March 7-8, 2018 in conjunction with the 2018 North American Saxophone Alliance Biennial Conference in Cincinnati. Each semi-finalist will be required to perform the following:

1. Concert Suite (Mvts. I and III ONLY) by William Bolcolm
2. Partita No.2 in d minor BWV 1004 (Gigue ONLY)
In the key of the performers choice on any saxophone
3. Up to 10 minutes of additional music of the performer's choice - Choice music cannot be repeated between live rounds; HOWEVER choice music from the taped preliminary round can be used in a live round. All finalists must provide one original copy of the score(s) for the choice repertoire. Failure to do so will result in disqualification.

4. IMPORTANT – SEMI-FINALISTS WILL HAVE 20 MINUTES ON STAGE ONLY! This timing includes walking on and off stage. If performers go over their allotted time, they will be stopped by a proctor. There is no penalty for being stopped by the proctor.

V. Finals

Up to 6 saxophonists will advance to the final round. The final round will take place during the 2018 NASA Biennial Conference. Each finalist will be required to play the following:

1. Performers choose one of the following works:
Sequenza IXb by Luciano Berio
Sequenza VIIb by Luciano Berio
2. 20-25 minutes of additional music of the performer's choice - Choice music cannot be repeated between live rounds; HOWEVER choice music from the taped preliminary round can be used in a live round. All finalists must provide one original copy of the score(s) for the choice repertoire. Failure to do so will result in disqualification. Repertoire from the semi-final round may not be duplicated in the final round.
- 3. IMPORTANT – FINALISTS WILL HAVE 40 MINUTES ON STAGE ONLY! This timing includes walking on and off stage. If performers go over their allotted time, they will be stopped by a proctor. There is no penalty for being stopped by the proctor.

VI. General Guidelines

1. Semi-Finalists will be announced via the Acceptd application system. All communication with the semi-finalists will be handled via Acceptd; therefore it is the contestants responsibility to make sure they can receive email communications from Acceptd throughout the entire competition.
2. The Winners' Recital will feature the First Place Prizewinner in the Collegiate Solo Competition and will be held on Saturday, March 10, 2018 during the North American Saxophone Alliance Biennial Conference.
3. Eligible contestants may also enter the Jazz Competition and the Saxophone Quartet Competition, but they must submit a separate application and separate entry fee for each category entered.
4. All fees and dues are non-refundable.

5. All expenses, including lodging and transportation to and from the competition, are the sole responsibility of the contestants.
6. A minimum of 15 entries is required to hold this competition. Entry fees will be refunded if the competition is cancelled.
7. Choice repertoire in all rounds may be programmed as complete multi-movement works or individual movements from multi-movement works and may be played on any saxophone. Works may be accompanied or unaccompanied, but must be performed with piano if they are composed with piano.
8. Semi-Finalists and Finalists will have the opportunity to hire a NASA staff pianist. Additional details such as costs and repertoire will be made available when the Accepted application web site becomes available. You must be available on site to rehearse on Tuesday, March 6, 2018 if you request a staff pianist.
9. If you are planning to hire a NASA staff pianist, you must consult their repertoire lists (which will be posted on the NASA website) when programming your choice repertoire. At least 2 of the 3 pianists need to know the piece you wish to program. If none or only 1 of the pianists knows a piece you wish to program, you must contact the Collaborative Artist Coordinator, Casey Dierlam, via email to get special permission: caseygene3@hotmail.com
10. The required repertoire may only be used in the rounds in which they are required. Choice music cannot be repeated between live rounds; HOWEVER choice music from the taped preliminary round can be used in the live rounds.
11. In both live rounds, the judges reserve the right to request specific movements and/or excerpts of each performer's program due to time constraints. This could include judges asking contestants to stop within a movement and skip to a different section.
12. Professional musicians will judge both the preliminary audition recordings and the live round performances. Semi-Finalists will be evaluated solely on their Semi-Final live round performance and Finalists will be evaluated solely on their Final live round performance.
